

Dear Sir

30 Court St

May 21. 1851

You see by the Adventure and Manuscript, that the enemy are attempting to make me responsible for the wording, the phraseology of my Adventure Speech.

There is no doubt that the Speech is honestly reported, & in substance correct; but part of it is crowded not verbatim

Went the report we were without the mortgage ~~on~~, without being authorized to me; & that, since substantially correct, the former mortgage is not to be ~~renewed~~ or mine. You see that Mr.

Seven years in active letter you to no man. When the balance of that I have has been before the country for three months, it shows that we for that that they choose to do easier to make the cents - very turn or forms.

I took pains & praise, while I returned to the substance, to advise at Worcester & every where else, all

R. H. Dana Jr.

Calling of names, & applying of epithets. It is bad taste, & unnecessary.

Will you send me a copy of the paper containing this notice, & it will be the better, the more strictly it is confined to that one point.

Yours obt. Servt

R. H. Dana Jr

J. M. Park, Esq.

P.S. Don't allude to any letter or request from me.
